Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: Like last week, Jesus explains to his disciples that being his followers will ask more of them than a literal reading of the law they have always been taught. They are called not to an approach of compliance with minimum requirements, but to a life of radical generosity that imitates the love of God, whose love spills forth and gives us life. They are called to offer forgiveness and love that is not deserved by the recipients. "Be perfect" is an intimidating instruction, but it may help to think of "perfect" in the sense of whole or complete. The life to which Jesus calls us is one of integrity, one where our hearts and minds and actions are all in alignment with each other. Living as Jesus asks is healing. It brings us to wholeness. It enables us to follow him with our whole hearts.

To Experience: This gospel can be very much misused in cases of abuse; victims are not morally required to continuously turn the other cheek to one who has hurt them. An important mark of maturity in Christian life is the ability to discern between suffering we are called to accept and suffering we are called to resist. Remember that God wants justice for the oppressed and is always on the side of those who are downtrodden.

Year of Mary
October 1, 2022 to December 8, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent. Lent's purpose is explained by the readings for Ash Wednesday. St. Paul is clear, "be reconciled to God" (2 Corinthians 5:20, 2nd reading). The Prophet Joel appeals to us, "return to me with your whole heart, with fasting, and weeping, and mourning. Rend your hearts ..." (Joel 2:12-13, 1st reading). It requires humility to admit that we have sinned and to recognize our need to be reconciled to God. During Lent, we take responsibility for the wrong that we have done.

Lent is a penitential season. Penances are sacrifices that we voluntarily adopt as signs of our repentance. Penances should not be easy! They should require effort and to a certain extent they should be uncomfortable and inconvenient. If your Lent is easy, chances are you are doing it wrong.

The three practices of Lent are prayer, fasting and almsgiving. All three of these come from the Ash Wednesday Gospel. Jesus gives the instruction. "When you give alms... When you pray... When you fast..." (Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18). Jesus is not saying, "If you give alms... if you pray... if you fast..." Jesus is not offering these practices as an option or a suggestion. For Jesus, these are requirements.

Almsgiving is the generosity that we show the less fortunate. Almsgiving detaches us from an inordinate attachment to material possessions. Almsgiving is an effective remedy to selfishness and greed. Almsgiving helps us to resist the temptations of the world.

Prayer is absolutely necessary for the Christian life. Every spiritual master says that Christians must pray for a minimum of at least twenty minutes a day. It is not popular today to talk about the devil. But he is real. "Be vigilant, your adversary, the devil, prowls like a roaring lion, seeks to devour you" (1 Peter 5:8). We are engaged in spiritual battle, whether we realize it or not. That is why we hear these words in the opening prayer of Ash Wednesday Mass, "Grant, O Lord, that we may begin with holy fasting this campaign of Christian service..." This prayer sounds like a call to battle, because Lent is a call to battle and prayer is our weapon. And as almsgiving is the remedy to the temptations of the world, prayer is our remedy against the temptations of the devil.

Lastly, Jesus talks about fasting. Fasting is hardly mentioned anymore, even though for centuries it was a normal part of Christian spirituality. Fasting is the voluntary restriction on calories to awaken hunger. The benefit of fasting includes a strengthening of self-mastery, the physical hunger of the fast awakens a spiritual hunger for God. Fasting helps us to grow in gratitude, and through fasting we gain the strength to do hard things. Since it is an act of self-discipline, it is a powerful remedy to any temptations of the flesh. Fasting should never endanger one's health, but most people in moderate health can engage in some moderate fasting.

In the next few days, take some time to reflect over what the Lord is calling you to do for Lent. Make your resolutions concrete. Write them down. The more seriously that we embrace the sacrifices of Lent, the greater our joy at Easter. So my prayer for you is that your Lent may be hard so that your joy at Easter may be even greater.

Blessings,
Father Bill

BISHOP'S APPEAL IMPACT

You Shall Love Your Neighbor As Yourself

"When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one as well. If anyone wants to go to law with you over your tunic, hand over your cloak as well. Should anyone press you into service for one mile, go for two miles. Give to the one who asks of you, and do not turn your back on one who wants to borrow."
Matthew 5:39-42

In today's readings we are reminded that we should not only love our neighbor, but also to love our enemies and pray for those who persecute us. This feels like a tall order, doesn't it? It is usually easy to give love to those we know, but more challenging to reach out and show love and compassion to a stranger or to our enemies. Maybe those are people who have made choices we disagree with or have hurt us.

To be perfect in the eyes of our heavenly Father, we need to look past those we know, to be more compassionate with those we might not normally consider. Together we need to rise in faith and go the extra mile. Certainly there are different ways to do this, but one way is by giving to the Bishop's Appeal. Funds raised during the Bishop's Appeal help people in our parish we know and people in our Diocese that we don't know. Children and adults attend lively programs learning the Word of God, Care Ministers are trained to minister to members in our parish, Catholic Charities provides counseling to people in need, families seeking to adopt are connected with newborn babies. Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal makes happy endings possible and helps you show love and compassion to others.

What you give is less important than the spirit in which you give. To make a gift contact our parish office, use the letter and pledge you received at home or visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give.

Sharing the Light of Christ Inspiring Connection

The Lord has blessed us in so many ways! Our parish family continues to reach out and be with people through the joys and challenges of life.

Thanks to the support of the Bishop's Appeal, the Church has found innovative and effective ways to connect with people and share the light Christ.
