Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: At first glance, this gospel may seem an odd choice for the Sunday we celebrate the tripartite personhood of God. The Father and Son are mentioned, but the Holy Spirit is nowhere to be seen. But despite the lack of explicit mention, this gospel is rich in the Spirit. It is through the Spirit overshadowing Mary that Jesus comes to be in the world, and Spirit accompanies Jesus throughout his ministry and mission on earth. The silence here is often part of how the Spirit works, in subtleties and whispers rather than in obvious or understandable ways. We might prefer the Spirit's work—like all of God's work—to be more evident to us, but the wisdom of God differs from ours and so our work is training our eyes to see the quiet hints of God's hand in the world.

To Experience: We live out the mystery of the Trinity in the ongoing dance of all our human relationships. As the ancient hymn "Ubi Caritas" reminds us, wherever love is, God is present. God is the source and sustenance of all the different ways we experience love in our human relationships.

1. Is there a person of the Trinity you think of most often when you pray? While the unity of the Trinity means that of course God in God's fullness hears your prayers, what might it be like to try praying to one of the other persons more explicitly?
2. Where might God be inviting you to keep an eye out for the Spirit's subtle movements?
3. Which relationships in your life reveal God's love to you? In which relationships is it challenging to see God at work?

Year of Mary
October 1, 2022 to December 8, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This weekend we observe Trinity Sunday, which celebrates the central mystery of the Christian faith.

All religions are not the same. Belief in the Trinity distinguishes Christians from other world religions. Hindus believe in many gods. Buddhists are unsure about god's existence. Jews and Muslims share with us a belief in one god, but find our belief in a Trinity as erroneous and offensive.

Our belief in the Trinity sets us apart from all other religions and is a belief that we share with all other Christian denominations.

Our belief in the Trinity is that the ONE God is a communion of three persons. Not that there are three Gods. Nor is each person one-third of God. Each person of the Trinity is fully God.

The Trinity reveals that God is, in himself, a circle of self-giving love. He is a communion of persons bound by the gift of love. The Father is the one who loves, and the Son is the one who is loved, and the Holy Spirit is the love that is shared among them. God is a communion of love based upon relationships between persons.

This probably seems like a remote theological point that does not have an impact on our day-to-day faith. However, by revealing himself as a communion of person, God reveals that faithful love is at the heart of who he is. If love is at the heart of who God is, he can share himself with us in a way that is more profound and intimate than we can ever imagine.

If God is not a Trinity, then Jesus is just a creature. If Jesus is just a creature, then God sent a creature to work our redemption rather than doing it himself. If God is not a Trinity, then the Holy Spirit is not God, but rather some vague force. If the Holy Spirit is just a creature, then we would not be receiving God himself into our hearts through faith and the sacrament.

But since God is a Trinity, we can truly and beautifully say that God himself chose to enter our world to save. Since God is a Trinity, we can truly and beautifully say that God himself dwells in our hearts as the gift of the Holy Spirit.

*Eucharistic Procession
Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
“Corpus Christi” Celebration*

*June 11, 2023
9am Mass at St. Gregory Parish*

“The more ardent the love for the Eucharist in the hearts of the Christian people, the more clearly will they recognize the goal of all mission: to bring Christ to others,” Pope Benedict XVI, Sacramentum Caritatis, February 22, 2007.

There will be only one Mass on the morning of Sunday, June 11.
It will be at St. Gregory Church at 9:00 AM.

Pope Benedict XVI during the Eucharistic Procession in Rome on June 7, 2012

Eucharistic Processions became more prominent as the worship of the Eucharist outside of the Mass grew in popular devotions and as the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist became more of a central focus of theological study. In the 13th century, when the Solemnity of Corpus Christi was established for the universal Church, Eucharistic Processions quickly became a part of that celebration. Over the following centuries Eucharistic Processions spread more and more throughout the Church.

The Church has consistently encouraged the development and growth of Eucharistic Processions. In many parts of the world today, Eucharistic Processions are a very important form of Eucharistic piety. Different cultures have developed traditions surrounding Eucharistic Processions including street decoration, songs, prayers and other devotions. Reintroducing Eucharistic Processions where they have faded in popularity can be a powerful way to renew and rediscover both belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist as well as the missionary call that every Catholic shares: to bring Jesus to the world.

The Journey: Trinity, Faith

The Bible reveals the mystery of who God is: God is love. God created us out of love, died for us out of love, and invites us on a journey of faith in which we live in his love. In this study, we'll look at the God who is Love and how that love shows itself in the Trinity and the Faith.

Tenth annual 'Walk to Mary' covers 21 miles

BY SAM LUCERO | OSV NEWS

CHAMPION — A priest's appeal in 2011 to begin a walking pilgrimage in northeast Wisconsin, similar to other pilgrimages to holy sites around the world, inspired two men to take up the challenge.

On May 4, 2013, the first "Walk to Mary" took place. About 350 people participated in the 21-mile pilgrimage from the National Shrine of St. Joseph in De Pere to the National Shrine of Our Lady of Champion in Champion, some 18 miles northeast of Green Bay.

This year, the 10th Walk to Mary was held May 6 and attracted 5,330 people from 44 states as well as Canada and Mexico.

After a 7 a.m. prayer service and blessing, pilgrims departed on their journey along the Fox River Trail under overcast skies and drizzling rain.

By noon, the rain stopped and lunch was served at Holy Cross Church in Bay Settlement, the 14-mile mark. Pilgrims began arriving in Champion around 3 p.m. Bishop David Ricken was on hand at the shrine to welcome pilgrims and celebrated Mass for them at 5:15 p.m.

The walk's founders look back with awe on the event's success and how it has achieved one of its goals: bringing people closer to Mary.

"It has been inspiring to see how it has grown, not only attracting people from all across the U.S., but impacting those who participate," said Pat Deprey, who, along with Tom Schmit, answered the call for a walking pilgrimage made by Fr. Francis (Rocky) Hoffman, executive director of Relevant Radio.

FRANKLY, FRANCIS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In our continuing catechesis on apostolic zeal, we turn to St. Francis Xavier, patron of Catholic missions. Born in Spain, Francis studied in Paris, where he met St. Ignatius of Loyola. Together with a few companions, they formed the Society of Jesus, placing themselves at the service of the pope for the urgent needs of the church.

The 16th century, the age of discovery, called for a great missionary outreach. Francis set out for the East Indies. Starting in Goa, he carried out intense activity of preaching, baptizing, catechizing and caring for the sick. From India, he passed to the Maluku islands and to Japan. Unable to fulfil his dream of entering China, Francis died, at only 46, on the nearby island of Shangchuan. His heroic zeal for evangelization was the fruit of a life of deep prayer and loving union with the person of Jesus Christ.

May the example of St. Francis Xavier inspire our own efforts to advance the Church's mission, as joyful witnesses to the risen Lord and his saving word.

Altamirano ordained transitional deacon May 21 at St. Francis Xavier Cathedral

BY JEFF KUROWSKI | THE COMPASS

ST. FRANCIS — Juan-Carlos Altamirano has some requests for God on his ordination day.

"I've been asking for grace. That day I will be completely consecrated by God to serve God's people," he said. "For me, it will be that moment of getting a lot closer to Christ. I've always wanted to belong to Jesus. ... I hope to have a peaceful and joyful heart that day."

Altamirano will be scheduled to be ordained a transitional deacon for the Diocese of Green Bay by Bishop David Ricken on Sunday, May 21, at St. Francis Xavier Cathedral. The Mass will begin at 3 p.m. He is scheduled to be ordained to the priesthood in the summer of 2024.

His journey to the diaconate traces back to August of 2013 when he arrived as a 19-year-old in Wisconsin. Altamirano, a native of Llano Largo in Esteli, Nicaragua, was awarded a ...

5 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Monthly devotions

BY PATRICIA KASTEN | THE COMPASS

- 1 This month we honor the Sacred Heart, which has a feast day on June 16.
- 2 Other months also have special devotions: January is the month of the Holy Name of Jesus; February is devoted to the Holy Family and March is focused on St. Joseph.
- 3 The other spring months' devotions are the Blessed Sacrament in April and Mary in May.
- 4 Summer sees devotions to the Precious Blood (July), the Immaculate Heart (August) and the Seven Sorrows of Mary (September).
- 5 The last three months of the year focus on the Holy Rosary (October), the Holy Souls (November) and the Immaculate Conception (December).

Taking a break with God

Do you ever feel like you could use a break? Could you use some time to be alone, to let your mind and thoughts take a pause? Are you looking for peace?

I know just the place for you to find these things. And I know the person who can give them to you.

BISHOP'S CORNER

Bishop David Ricken

Eucharistic Adoration is a wonderful time to take a break from the busyness of life and be with our Lord in his eucharistic presence. Personally, I find great peace and comfort when I spend time before the Blessed Sacrament, and I believe you can experience this same peace.

Some people have not had the opportunity to experience Adoration. So, you might ask, "What is it?" Eucharistic Adoration is a time when the Eucharist is exposed in a monstrance (a stand that holds the eucharistic host in a glass holder for people to see and pray before).

Eucharist Adoration is an extension of the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament that occurs in every Mass. We say, "Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." We are so blessed to be before our Lord in the Eucharist at the Mass. Adoration gives us another opportunity to be with our Lord in an intimate and close way. Besides formal Adoration, we can also spend time in prayer before the tabernacle of our churches. ...

"The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity renews our mission of living in communion
with God and all people
on the model of the divine
communion."
~Pope Francis

To make a One by One payment toward your pledge, please mail it to the following address ...

Catholic Foundation of the Diocese of Green Bay
PO Box 22550
Green Bay, WI 54305-2550

This is a locked box specifically for receiving campaign pledges. Thank you!

Did you financially support the Bishop's Appeal in 2023? If your answer is 'no', you will continue to receive mailings from the Catholic Foundation. Even though our parishes have met our goals, the campaign continues throughout the year.

Did you miss the opportunity to share your support with the one by One Campaign or the Bishop's Appeal? Don't worry!
You will have additional opportunities to support upcoming projects right in your own parish! As previously mentioned at Masses, both parishes have large projects currently being discussed by the councils. Stay tuned for more information.

*You are a hero
