Parish News

Please pray for the repose of the souls of SG parishioners Jacque Laures, who passed away February 1, and Mary Ann Ristow who passed away on February 4. May their families and friends find comfort in God's loving embrace. A private service will be held at a later date for Jacque. A funeral Mass for Mary Ann is being planned for next week.

The Collection of Last Year's Palms will begin February 15. Look for the collection box at the church doors.

Have You Read *The Three Ordinary Voices of God? The book was given to you at Christmas. Take time to answer the 4 quick questions on the bookmark insert and return it in the collection basket. Your feedback is appreciated. Didn't receive a book? Stop at the parish office to pick up a copy—no cost to you.

Word Among Us—February Issue is available at the back of church. Pick up your copy today.

"They left everything and followed Him"
(Luke 5:11)

Dear Friends in Christ,

In today's Gospel, Jesus calls Simon Peter, James, and John to follow Him. After witnessing the miraculous catch of fish, they leave everything behind - their boats, their nets, their livelihood - and follow Jesus without hesitation. This moment is not just abandoning possessions but about a radical trust in Christ. They step into the unknown, guided by faith rather than certainty.

What does it mean for us today to "leave everything and follow Him"? While not everyone is called to leave their jobs or homes, every Christian is invited to place Christ at the center of their lives. Following Jesus means surrendering our fears, doubts, and personal plans to embrace His will. It means choosing faith over worry, love over resentment, and selflessness over personal gain.

We follow Jesus in our daily lives when we make time for prayer, when we serve the poor and the suffering, when we forgive those who wrong us, and when we trust God even in uncertainty. Sometimes, following Jesus requires leaving behind our pride, bad habits, or distractions that keep us from growing in faith.

Jesus' invitation is as real today as it was on the shores of Galilee. He calls us to a deeper relationship with Him, to let go of whatever holds us back, and to trust in His providence. This week, take a moment to reflect: What is Jesus asking me to leave behind so that I can follow Him more closely? May we, like the first disciples, have the courage to say "yes" to His call and walk in faith.

*God Bless,
Father Josua*

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: Peter's journey with Christ can give us whiplash—he will challenge Jesus, misunderstand him, follow him into deep waters, doubt him, deny him, and finally land as the shepherd of Christ's flock, ready to endure persecution and death as a result of his preaching. Here, we see him at the moment that started it all. Peter is reckless: one miracle and he is ready to leave everything—his boats and nets and even the miraculous catch of fish Jesus has just provided. He is a man seized by love, love that he will not live out perfectly but that will see him through a lifetime with Jesus. Although his journey with Christ will have its ups and downs, this first encounter changes everything.

To Experience: Peter is a magnificently imperfect person—and God still chooses him to lead the early church and to hold a place of honor in our ecclesial memory. God knows all our imperfections, our shortcomings, and our sins, and God chooses us anyway. God is always bigger than our inadequacy. When we say yes to cooperating with God, God will fill in the gaps in our abilities and can make wonderful things happen.

1. Peter does not always live up to the reckless love with which he leaves everything and follows Jesus. His journey with Christ, like all of ours, will have ups and downs. Where are you on you walk with Jesus? How might Peter accompany you wherever you are?
2. What imperfections do you have that you try to keep out of your life of faith? How might you offer these to God to work with?
3. What might God be asking you to leave behind to more wholeheartedly follow Jesus?

Seeking Altar Servers

There is a growing need for servers to assist at Masses as more of our young parishioners graduate high school. Training is available to anyone who is interested— boys, girls, men, women. Must have received First Eucharist to serve. Please contact the parish offices if you are interested.

Mass Changes Effective March 8 & 9

A new process will be followed for the presentation of gifts and for the commentators . This will begin during the Lenten season:

Presentation Gifts – Greeters will be responsible for asking parishioners to bring up gifts but may do it themselves if they wish. Presenters will be bringing gifts up at the same time ushers go up to begin their collection. Once collection is complete, an usher may bring the basket to the sanctuary without handing it to Father or Deacon.

Commentators will remain in the back of church until about a minute before Mass begins. They will then proceed to the front of church, make the announcements, and then return to the back of church for the procession. If they choose to they are welcome to return to their seats after the reading and/or intentions are complete or they may stay in the sanctuary. If preferred, they may remain in their seats until it is time for the reading.

Blessing of the Throat

About St. Blaise

St. Blaise is a bishop and martyr who lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. For a time, Blaise lived in a cave to escape persecution. On his feast the church recalls a miracle cure associated with him and celebrates the blessing of the throats. Blaise apparently saved the life of a boy who was choking on a fish bone. The saint said that anyone who lit a candle in his memory would be free of infection, thus candles are used in the traditional throat blessing. He is listed among the Fourteen Holy Helpers, saints revered as healers. He is the patron saint of throat illnesses, animals, wool combers, and wool trading.

Blessing of the Throat

On February 3, the Feast Day of St. Blaise, the Church recalls a miracle cure associated with him and celebrates the blessing of the throats with candles.

St. Blaise said that anyone who lit a candle in his memory would be free of infection, thus candles are used in the traditional throat blessing. The candles (blessed on Candlemas Feb. 2) are crossed against the throat, and the following prayer is said:

“Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.”

Crossed Candles

Crossed candles are an important part of Saint Blaise Day, they commemorate the mother of the boy who choked on the fishbone. She presented Saint Blaise with crossed candles to light his way to jail when the ruler of Sebastea ordered his arrest. The origin of the blessing of throats uses crossed candles as a symbol. St. Blaise, pray for us!

BISHOP'S APPEAL 2025

“Jesus said to Simon, ‘Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men.’ When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.”

Luke 5:10-11

Dear Friends,

After fishing all night, Simon Peter, James, and John must have been tired. Imagine how you would have felt if you were them. Your body would ache from casting large, heavy nets into the sea over, and over, and over again. You'd be exhausted from staying awake all night. And, you'd be frustrated: not a single fish made it into your net.

Jesus saw the tired, frustrated men and instructed them to cast their nets into the sea once more. Simon Peter felt it was impossible. But because Jesus instructed him, Simon Peter and the men casted their nets. The nets tore as hundreds of fish swam into them, to the point where their boats were starting to sink. With great fear and shame, Simon Peter told Jesus to leave him. He felt undeserving to be among Jesus. Yet, Jesus said, “Do not be afraid.” After witnessing the power and compassion of the Son of God, the three men gave up everything to follow Jesus and bring hope to the world. We are called to do the same.

Just like Jesus and His disciples, our diocese is answering the call. Parish faith formation programs and Catholic schools help our young people find hope in a friendship with Jesus. Catholic Charities counselors are Bringing Hope to the World. With counseling services for mental health struggles, debt management, adoption and parenting support, and marriage and family difficulties, counselors help people hear Jesus's words: “Do not be afraid.” Jesus is their hope today and always. This and even more is made possible in our parish and our diocese because of your gift to the Bishop's Appeal.

Please prayerfully consider how you can share your gifts to the 2025 Bishop's Appeal. For just $5 a month, you can help diocesan ministries share the hope of Jesus with members of our parish. Thank you for answering Jesus' call to follow Him and share His hope with others!

To give to the Appeal, contact our parish office, use the pledge card you received at home, or visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.com/give to make your gift.

Thank you for your gift to the Bishop's Appeal and for your support of Holy Trinity and St. Gregory Parishes.

Why Give to the Bishop's Appeal?

And the king will say to them in reply,
“Amen, I say to you,
whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine,
you did for me.”

-Matthew 25:40

Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal will help in countless ways. Children and families are able to attend lively, interactive education programs learning the Word of God. A young woman in an abusive relationship is able, through counseling with Catholic Charities, to stand on her own feet. Married couples struggling with infertility are able to become parents through Adoption Services. Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal makes happy endings possible.

93% of every dollar raised goes to Diocesan ministries and services here in northeast Wisconsin.

Make a tremendous difference and give to the Bishop's Appeal. How much you give is less important than the spirit in which you give. Even small donations add up to large donations. To make a gift today, contact your parish office or visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give.
