A Journey from the Cross to Glory

Dear Friends in Christ,

Lent is often seen as a season of sacrifice, a time to give up something and walk the path of penance. But today's Gospel of the Transfiguration invites us to see beyond suffering - to the glory that awaits us.

Jesus takes Peter, James, and John up a high mountain, where they witness something incredible. His appearance changes, His clothes become dazzling white, and He stands with Moses and Elijah. Then, they hear a voice from heaven. "This is my chosen Son. Listen to Him." Imagine the awe and wonder of this moment! Yet, despite this glorious vision, Jesus tells them not to speak of it until after His resurrection. Why? Because glory comes through the Cross.

This Gospel is a reminder that our faith journey is not just about trials but about transfiguration. Peter wanted to stay on the mountain, but Jesus led them back down to face the reality of suffering. We, too, may want to hold onto moments of joy and avoid hardships. However, Lent teaches us that through prayer, fasting, and acts of love, we are being prepared for something greater.

As we continue our Lenten journey, let's ask ourselves: Are we truly listening to Jesus? Are we allowing Him to transform us, even in moments of struggle? Just as the disciples saw Christ's glory, we, too, are called to experience His presence in our lives - not just in times of comfort, but even in the challenges.

This week, let's take time to reflect: Where is Jesus leading us? How is He calling us to deeper faith? And most importantly, are we willing to follow Him - not just to the mountain of glory, but through the valleys of sacrifice?

The Cross is not the end; it is the path to Resurrection.

*Blessings,
Fr. Josuwa*

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: In the biblical imagination, mountains are often a privileged place of encounter with God.

Their heights are somewhere between heaven and earth, so they are seen as an in-between place where the usual boundaries between the natural and the supernatural are thinner. Peter, John, and James see some extraordinary things in their mountaintop experiences. They see Moses and Elijah—two other men who met God on a mountain—and might come to understand Jesus as part of their prophetic lineage. What they do not yet understand is that Jesus both fulfills and transcends what God has done in the past. They no longer need to ascend the mountain, because Jesus himself is a place of encounter with God. In him, God has become newly accessible, dwelling among us in an unprecedented way.

To Experience: When Peter, John, and James experience the transfiguration, they do not immediately run out and share it. They instead fall silent, perhaps joining Mary in pondering in their hearts their wonderful but bewildering new experience of God.

1. In the biblical imagination, mountains are often privileged places of encounter with God. Where do you find God more accessible? Where do you go when you need to be reminded of God's presence?
2. The transfiguration reveals something about Jesus, but it also leaves the disciples bewildered and frightened. What is an area of your life that feels confusing or dark? How would you like God to shine divine light there?
3. The disciples fall silent after what they witness on the mountain, there are times to proclaim what we have seen of Jesus, and there are times to take it in and let it shape us. How do you discern when to proclaim and when to be silent?

Spend More Time with Jesus this Lent

As we honored the memory of our departed loved ones with the Tree of Souls this November, we also invite you to reflect on Christ's ultimate sacrifice through our Traditional Altar Server's Cross in the gathering space. This cross stands as a powerful symbol of Calvary, reminding us of Jesus' love and redemption. A prayer card is available nearby, and a kneeler is placed for those who wish to spend a moment in prayer. This symbol of sacrifice will remain at the gathering space throughout the Lent until Good Friday. May this sacred space deepen our faith and draw us closer to Christ, who laid down His life for us.

Thank you,
Holy Trinity Parish

Paying it Forward as a Lead Mother in Nigeria

In Nigeria, over 25 million people are experiencing extreme food insecurity due to climate change, poverty and conflict. Because of violence in their hometown, Amina and her family were forced to flee and start life over again in a new village. Learn how Amina's participation in a Catholic Relief Services program helped prepare nutritious meals for her family and support other families in her community to overcome the challenges of hunger and malnutrition.

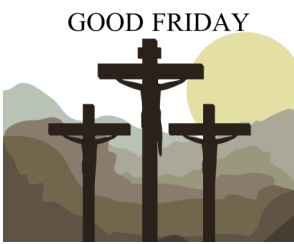

We need a family or two for Washing of the Feet on Holy Thursday. This ancient rite is a beautiful example of humility.

Good Friday
Passion of the Lord

The Service on Good Friday, April 18, will be at 6pm at Holy Trinity. The later time will give an opportunity for people working during the day to attend, as few companies/businesses are closing in the afternoon. Many area churches will continue to offer the traditional 1pm Service, if that is your preference.

Walk to Mary—Saturday, May 3

The Walk to Mary has become a pilgrimage like no other in the world. We start with St. Joseph (at the National Shrine of St. Joseph) and walk to Mary (at the National Shrine of Our Lady of Champion) to get to Jesus. Our annual pilgrimage has impacted lives and filled hearts with many blessings from the Holy Family.

The 21 mile walk spiritually prepares us for our destination – America's only Church-approved Marian apparition site, where in 1859, the Blessed Mother appeared to Adele Brise on the site of the National Shrine of Our Lady of Champion in Champion, Wisconsin.

Parish Records Update Needed

Many of the records in the parishioner database in the offices are in need of updates. There are many landline numbers that are no longer used. There are outdated email contacts. Many families have children who have grown up, are on their own, have their own family, or no longer live in the area but the children are listed with their parents.

After Masses on March 22 & 23, March 29 & 30, and April 5 & 6, volunteers will be at the back each church with a printout of your current record. You are asked to review it and make the changes. New information will then be entered into the office database.

Children may remain on the parent's record until age 26 (per GB Diocese guidelines). At 26 years old, you are asked to register independently. If you have not previously registered, we'd love for you to become a register member. Please take time to complete a parishioner registration form. Forms will be available from the volunteers.

Each parish will have the print outs at their respective parishes. Please make time to provide us with the update. All parishioners whose records are not updated at Mass will need to be contacted in another way. Help us save time and extra steps.

Information to confirm or correct:

- Family members who are currently active or inactive
- Residential address (and mailing address, if different)
- Landline number (if applicable)
- Cell phone numbers for adults in household
- Primary household email address
- Email addresses for adults in household (especially if serving in ministry or on a committee)

Wow! Your generosity has been incredible!

Holy Trinity Parish is extremely close to meeting their Bishop's Appeal goal for the year. St. Gregory Parish is nearly 80% of the way to the goal. At this rate, both parishes are on track to potentially reach the goal by the end of March. We are almost there! Thank you!
