TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Parish News

Pray for the Repose of the Soul of St. Gregory parishioner Leon Lutzke. Leon passed away August 14. A Mass of Christian Burial was held on Friday, August 21.

Women's Home Study Being Offered Catholic women are invited to participate in an Endow home study, St. Teresa of Avila, Teacher of Prayer. Beginning Tuesday, September 1, 6:30pm – 8:30pm every other week for 9 sessions. Call SG parish office (920-773-2511) to register and visit endowgroups.org to order your book.

Ministry Schedule: The September and October Ministry Schedules have been emailed. Copies are available at the back of church.

Thank You to Father Josuva, the choir, funeral Mass ministers, funeral dinner servers, and those who shared kind words on behalf of the Tim Schultz Family.

Little Books (Advent, Lent, Easter)

It's that time of year to place the order for Little Books. There has been a request to include some large print books in the order.

Pricing per book varies depending on the number ordered. The greater number of each type of book ordered, the less each book costs. The large print book cost is a maximum of $6.00 each. The maximum cost of the standard book is $5. We currently pay $1.80 per book (because of quantity).

We will gladly order large print books for anyone who is interested. However, we ask that you contact your parish office to request your large print book. A large print order will be placed for only those requested. The order placed now will be for the entire year ... so plan ahead. Thank you!

The standard print books will be ordered as usual.

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: Peter correctly identifies who Jesus is, but Jesus in turn instructs him and the other disciples to tell this to no one, keeping the "messianic secret." At this time, the Twelve are the few privileged recipients of this revelation; for the rest, they must come to know Jesus in the context that he decides. This context is made clear immediately thereafter, as Jesus looks ahead to his own passion, death, and resurrection. The paschal mystery is to be the lens through which the whole of Jesus' ministry is to be interpreted – the total and public revelation of who Jesus is, the Son of God sent for us. After the resurrection of Jesus, his ministry of healing and forgiveness finds its locus in Peter, the "rock". The church's responsibility in communion with the authority of Peter is to proclaim Jesus' death and resurrection and to make him present in word and sacrament, exercising the ministries of "binding" and "loosing" to shepherd the people of God.

To Experience: Both the Davidic monarchy in ancient times and the clerical leadership of the church over the past two millennia have demonstrated serious faults, despite guiding divinely authorized institutions. We might not know why God allowed certain people to hold kingship over his people of leadership over his church. But in spite of human inadequacy, we can hold faith in the church because it is ultimately Jesus' church, not ours. Jesus promises that "the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it." If we cannot trust the words of Jesus himself, to whom shall we go?

1. How has the church's ministry of "loosing" sins in the sacrament of reconciliation played a role in your spiritual journey?

Beyond Human Understanding

Jesus asks His disciples a piercing question: "Who do you say that I am?"

Simon Peter answers, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

Jesus' response to Peter contains a powerful spiritual truth: "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father."

With these words, Jesus reminds us that true faith is not a product of human logic, academic study, or mere guesswork. Intellectual efforts alone ("flesh and blood") cannot unlock the deep mystery of God. Instead, knowing Jesus intimately requires divine revelation, a direct gift that flows straight from the heart of the Father.

How do we open our hearts to receive this heavenly revelation?

It does not happen by accident, nor can it survive on a casual, once-in-a-while faith. True spiritual insight requires a constant, intentional encounter with our Heavenly Father.

St. Gregory Homemade Craft Fair Saturday, October 3

The Craft Fair is rapidly approaching and here are some great ways to become involved!

1. If your garden is producing abundantly, don't let the overage go to waste. Consider canning or pickling several additional jars for the Parish function. This can be anything from jams & jellies, to pickles or salsa, and everything in between! What a great way to share God's blessings with others!
2. Consider handcrafting something for our "Parishioner Donations" booth. We are looking for newly handcrafted items that would sell for $20 or less and can be any sort of craft: wood, pottery, leather, greeting cards, fresh floral arrangements, etc. It will showcase the many talents in this parish!

   All monies received (100%) go directly to St. Gregory Parish, and any remaining items will be distributed by SG Caring Hearts & Hands to nursing home or homebound parishioners to show they are in our thoughts and prayers! Imagine their joy receiving a handmade item from a fellow parishioner.

All donations should be dropped off at the SG Parish Office by October 1. Thank you for sharing your talents with the Parish and please contact Amy Faucett or Liz Kenneke with any questions you may have.

7 - Church Walk

Saturday, September 5
An 11-mile Pilgrimage through the Holy Sites of the
St. Nazianz and School Hill Area

- Starts 7:45am at Mary, Queen of Our Hearts Chapel, Steinthal
- Ends at Holy Trinity Parish, School Hill

A pilgrimage to the sites of 7 local churches and chapels.
Walk the entire route or any part of the route.
Shuttle services available.

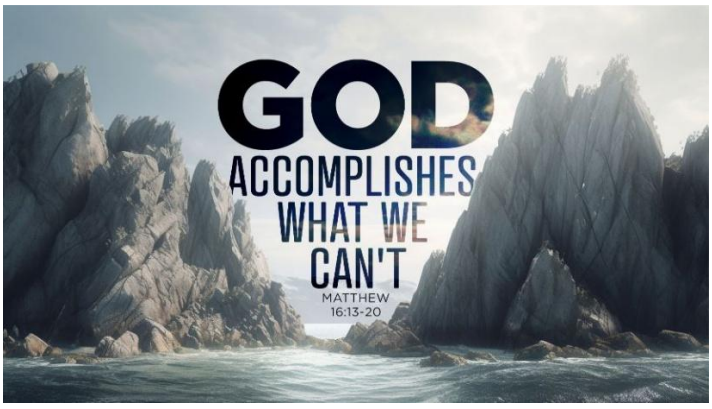
Participants will need to sign a waiver of liability prior to the start of Pilgrimage.

Annual Chapel Mass in Steinthal

Calling forth all who are interested in participating in the tradition of reciting the rosary and attending morning Mass in honor of Blessed Virgin Mary's birthday. This celebration will take place on Tuesday, September 8, beginning at 11am at Mary, Queen of Our Hearts Chapel in Steinthal, 7 miles north of Kiel. Guests are asked to bring a lawn chair for adequate outdoor seating, as indoor capacity is limited. Services will be held rain or shine. All are welcome!

Raising Vocations: Week IV

Our future priests and religious need your help: Thank you to those who have participated in the Raising Vocations Collection! Nearly 500 high school students from our diocese attended Steubenville Youth Conferences this summer to discover Jesus and hear God's call to the priesthood and religious life. This is just one of the many ways your gifts are already at work! Will you please support our youth, so they can say "yes"? Every gift makes an impact in the formation of hundreds of young men and women throughout northeastern Wisconsin as they say "yes" to vocations to the priesthood or religious life.



Holy Trinity Perch Fry

We would like to thank Dennis and Karen Graf for their last 25 years of dedication to the annual perch fry.

Due to them stepping down from the committee, additional committee members are needed. The Perch Fry is the parish's only and largest fundraiser that helps support our parish.

Next meeting: Monday, September 14th; 6pm
We look forward to seeing you there!

Journey to the Heart of Jesus

God has given each of us unique gifts. These talents are not just for ourselves. They are meant to be used for the good of others – to serve. Prayerfully consider how God might be calling you to give back to him and your neighbor – in our family, parish, and wider community. We may be called upon to serve in various areas of parish life, parish organizations, or ministries related to our liturgical worship. There are many different ways to join fellow parishioners in using your gifts to serve God and others in our parishes.

Consider serving in one or more of the following areas:

* Rosary Leader
* Nursing Home Visitor
* Painting
* Plumbing
* Social Media
* Eucharistic Minister
* Scrip Seller
* Greeter
* Usher
* Reader
* Altar Server
* Church Decorating
* Photography
* Carpentry
* Discipleship Small Group Leader
* Cantors
* Baptismal Garment Seamstress

Contact the parish office to express interest. Thank you!

NOTE: St. Gregory Parish has a strong need to increase the number of people willing to serve in ministries at Mass.

The Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Saturday, August 22

Pope Pius XII established this feast in 1954. But the Blessed Virgin Mary's queenship has roots in Scripture. At the Annunciation, Gabriel announced that Mary's Son would receive the throne of David and rule forever. At the Visitation, Elizabeth calls Mary "mother of my Lord." As in all the mysteries of Mary's life, she is closely associated with Jesus: Her queenship is a share in Jesus' kingship. We can also recall that in the Old Testament the mother of the king has great influence in court.

In the fourth century Saint Ephrem called Mary "Lady" and "Queen." Later Church fathers and doctors continued to use the title. Hymns of the 11th to 13th centuries address Mary as queen: "Hail, Holy Queen," "Hail, Queen of Heaven," "Queen of Heaven." The Dominican rosary and the Franciscan crown as well as numerous invocations in Mary's litany celebrate her queenship.

The feast is a logical follow-up to the Assumption, and is now celebrated on the octave day of that feast. In his 1954 encyclical To the Queen of Heaven, Pius XII points out that Mary deserves the title because she is Mother of God, because she is closely associated as the New Eve with Jesus' redemptive work, because of her preeminent perfection, and because of her intercessory power.

Reflection:

As Saint Paul suggests in Romans 8:28–30, God has predestined human beings from all eternity to share the image of his Son. All the more was Mary predestined to be the mother of Jesus. As Jesus was to be king of all creation, Mary, in dependence on Jesus, was to be queen.
All other titles to queenship derive from this eternal intention of God. As Jesus exercised his kingship on earth by serving his Father and his fellow human beings, so did Mary exercise her queenship. As the glorified Jesus remains with us as our king till the end of time (Matthew 28:20), so does Mary, who was assumed into heaven and crowned queen of heaven and earth.
