We will gladly order large print books for anyone who is interested. However, we ask that you contact your parish office to request your large print book. A large print order will be placed for only those requested. The order placed now will be for the entire year ... so plan ahead. Thank you!

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: Jesus does not see his followers as living isolated lives, each following him on their own, but sharing that pursuit together in community. In fact, this community is itself a vessel for God's grace: "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I." However, Jesus also recognizes the challenges of community life, giving the Twelve criteria by which to handle disputes among believers. Even in the case of conflict, relationship is not to be ignored – initially, conflicts should be worked out between conflicting parties directly, without drawing others into gossip. Conflict that persists damages the entire community, however, not just those involved, and at that point it must be mediated in the context of the local community, still with the intent of restoring right relationship. However, sometimes drawing a boundary is necessary for the sake of all, with that hope that dissent is worked out in distance. Decision-making on behalf of the community is here extended to all of the Twelve. It is an authority that is rooted in Peter's leadership, but is exercised together as apostles in common.

To Experience: Earlier in Matthew's Gospel, Jesus asks us to "love our enemies," but this Sunday's gospel reading helps us to understand that love can take different forms, especially in the case of loving someone who has hurt us deeply. Sometimes, setting boundaries using Jesus' framework can create a space where healing is possible, with the hope of future reconciliation in whatever capacity grace allows.

1. What are some of the challenges of living faith in community? Where is God's grace working even amidst these difficulties?

Embracing the "Outcast"

Jesus gives us a clear framework for dealing with conflict and sin within our community. He instructs us to speak privately with someone who hurts us, then with witnesses, and finally to bring the matter to the Church. But it is His final instruction that truly challenges us: if the person still refuses to listen, we must "treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector."

At first glance, this sounds like an order to reject, banish, or excommunicate the wrongdoer. But we must ask ourselves: How did Jesus treat Gentiles and tax collectors?

He did not cast them out. He sat at their tables. He ate with them. He called Matthew, a tax collector, to be an Apostle. He praised the faith of the Roman Centurion and healed the daughter of the Canaanite woman.

To treat someone like a Gentile or a tax collector does not mean cutting them off from our love. It means recognizing that they are hurting, disconnected, and in need of the Gospel all over again. It means our approach must shift from correction to evangelization, from argument to radical hospitality.

September: The Month of the Bible

Why September is the Month of the Bible

- Feast of St. Jerome: The month concludes on September 30 with the Feast of St. Jerome, a Doctor of the Church.
- The Vulgate Translation: St. Jerome is famous for translating the Bible from Hebrew and Greek into Latin, known as the Vulgate.
- Focus on Scripture: During this month, Catholics are encouraged to read, study, and meditate on the Sacred Scriptures to grow closer to God.

This weekend only, as the Mass transitions into the Liturgy of the Word, the reader will process in with the Scriptures and be led by incense and/or candles. The procession is intended to draw greater attention to God's Holy Word and emphasize its importance.

Knights of Columbus Council 16729

- In keeping with the Knight's commitment to "Right to Life," the council donated $1,000 to "The Crossing" in Manitowoc and $1,000 to "Anchor of Hope" in Sheboygan.
- The council donated $500 to the WI State K of C Council for "Menasha Tornado Response" effort.
- The council donated $100 to St. Lawrence Seminary and $100 to Holy Resurrection Monastery.

St. Gregory Homemade Craft Fair Saturday, October 3

The Craft Fair is rapidly approaching and here are some great ways to become involved!

1. If your garden is producing abundantly, don't let the overage go to waste. Consider canning or pickling several additional jars for the Parish function. This can be anything from jams & jellies, to pickles or salsa, and everything in between! What a great way to share God's blessings with others!
2. Consider handcrafting something for our "Parishioner Donations" booth. We are looking for newly handcrafted items that would sell for $20 or less and can be any sort of craft: wood, pottery, leather, greeting cards, fresh floral arrangements, etc. It will showcase the many talents in this parish!

   All monies received (100%) go directly to St. Gregory Parish, and any remaining items will be distributed by SG Caring Hearts & Hands to nursing home or homebound parishioners to show they are in our thoughts and prayers! Imagine their joy receiving a handmade item from a fellow parishioner.

All donations should be dropped off at the SG Parish Office by October 1. Thank you for sharing your talents with the Parish and please contact Amy Faucett or Liz Kenneke with any questions you may have.

What's Next?

- This weekend (September 5 & 6) Service commitment cards will be distributed.
- Prayerfully consider how you are currently serving and how you may serve in the future.
- Indicate on the card areas you are currently serving and areas you are interested in learning more about.
- Return the completed card the weekend of September 12 & 13.
- Cards will be collected with commitments being offered up in prayer at Mass.
- Cards will be reviewed and follow-up contacts will be made soon after.

Lord, teach me to be generous;
Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
To give and not to count the cost;
To fight and not to heed the wounds;
To toil and not to seek for rest;
To labor and not to ask for reward –
except to know that I am doing your will.

Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers

Lord God, Master of the Vineyard,

How wonderful that you have invited us who labor by the sweat of our brow to be workers in the vineyard and assist your work to shape the world around us.

As we seek to respond to this call, make us attentive to those who seek work but cannot find it. Help us listen to the struggles of those who work hard to provide for their families but still have trouble making ends meet.

Open our eyes to the struggles of those exploited and help us speak for just wages and safe conditions, the freedom to organize, and time for renewal. For work was made for humankind and not humankind for work. Let it not be a vehicle for exploitation but a radiant expression of our human dignity.

Give all who labor listening hearts that we may pause from our work to receive your gift of rest. Fill us with your Holy Spirit that you might work through us to let your justice reign. Amen.
