A 'New Look' for the Pastoral Councils

Beginning this fiscal year, Holy Trinity and St. Gregory Pastoral Councils will meet jointly. The Joint Pastoral Council will equally represent both parishes with a chairperson from each. This is being done to help streamline the meetings when it concerns Father's task of pastorally leading both parishes. This initiative has been started by our parishes' leadership and is not being driven by the diocese. Each of our independent identities will remain.

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: Following Jesus' instruction about dispute in community, Peter approaches Jesus with a question about forgiveness. Peter suggests one could forgive up to seven times – seven considered a perfect number, in reference to the completion of creation in rest on the seventh day. One might infer that Peter thought seven was a high number. Last week's example of conflict resolution gave just three strikes before one was declared out of community. However, Jesus mandates forgiveness for not just seven but seventy-seven times – essentially, as many as needed. Jesus illustrates this point with the parable of the unforgiving servant. The servant's debt is an incredibly large amount, one that he could never hope to repay, but yet the king makes the impossibly generous decision to wipe it away. God is incredibly generous with each of us showing us endless mercy despite our many faults and failings. If we like the servant turn around and deny forgiveness to others, we create an obstacle to receiving God's mercy ourselves.

To Experience: Forgiveness is one of the most difficult parts of being a Christian, but it is also one of the most important. In a society grappling with "cancel culture" and the question of how long to hold someone's actions against them, the example of Jesus' unconditional forgiveness can be an ideal to aspire to, even if it's difficult to live out. How can we expect God to "forgive us our trespasses" if we do not "forgive those who trespass against us?"

1. Can you recognize the parable's images of forgiveness and unforgiveness in your life right now? Which relationships are still in need of healing?

Heartfelt Forgiveness

Jesus challenges us with a powerful teaching on the absolute necessity of mercy. After sharing the Parable of the Unforgiving Servant, He concludes with a sobering warning: we must forgive our brothers and sisters from our heart.

It is easy to request God's infinite mercy for ourselves, yet we often hold onto grudges against those who hurt us.

True Christian forgiveness is not a superficial gesture or a mere social politeness. Instead, it requires a profound transformation that clears away bitterness and releases the offender from their debt.

When we refuse to forgive, we trap ourselves in a prison of resentment and block the flow of God's grace in our lives. Christ reminds us that because we have been freely forgiven an unpayable debt of sin, we must extend that same radical mercy to others.

This kind of deep, heartfelt forgiveness can feel humanly impossible when the wounds are deep. However, the Holy Spirit provides the supernatural grace we need to let go of anger and choose love. This week, let us pray for the courage to open our hearts and truly forgive anyone who has wronged us.

St. Gregory Homemade Craft Fair Saturday, October 3

The Craft Fair is rapidly approaching and here are some great ways to become involved!

1. If your garden is producing abundantly, don't let the overage go to waste. Consider canning or pickling several additional jars for the Parish function. This can be anything from jams & jellies, to pickles or salsa, and everything in between! What a great way to share God's blessings with others!
2. Consider handcrafting something for our "Parishioner Donations" booth. We are looking for newly handcrafted items that would sell for $20 or less and can be any sort of craft: wood, pottery, leather, greeting cards, fresh floral arrangements, etc. It will showcase the many talents in this parish!

   All monies received (100%) go directly to St. Gregory Parish, and any remaining items will be distributed by SG Caring Hearts & Hands to nursing home or homebound parishioners to show they are in our thoughts and prayers! Imagine their joy receiving a handmade item from a fellow parishioner.

All donations should be dropped off at the SG Parish Office by October 1. Thank you for sharing your talents with the Parish and please contact Amy Faucett or Liz Kenneke with any questions you may have.

What's Next?

- Service commitment cards were distributed at last weekend's Masses.
- Prayerfully consider how you are currently serving and how you may serve in the future.
- Indicate on the card areas you are currently serving and areas you are interested in learning more about.
- Return the completed card this weekend (September 12 & 13).
- Cards will be collected with commitments being offered up in prayer at Mass.
- Cards will be reviewed and follow-up contacts will be made soon after.
