A 'New Look' for the Pastoral Councils

Beginning this fiscal year, Holy Trinity and St. Gregory Pastoral Councils will meet jointly. The Joint Pastoral Council will equally represent both parishes with a chairperson from each. This is being done to help streamline the meetings when it concerns Father's task of pastorally leading both parishes. This initiative has been started by our parishes' leadership and is not being driven by the diocese. Each of our independent identities will remain.

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: Jesus' parable this Sunday can irritate us. We might find ourselves sympathetic with the early-morning workers, out in the sun all day only to receive the same pay as those who had just arrived. "Equal pay for equal work," seems right by our standard of justice and for good reason. In contrast, the parable defies human logic. The landowner pays the usual daily wage to all workers – not denying anyone their agreed upon daily wage, but choosing to be generous to his latest hires, knowing that they too need to be able to eat what they need for the day. From another angle, this parable shows that God cannot divide himself and give someone "half" of heaven. If heaven is the gift of God's self, God does not hold back that gift, instead giving himself totally. The question then is not of God's generosity, but our own ability to receive God's gift. Thus, "the last will be first and the first will be last."

To Experience: Eternal life with God is not something we can earn, no matter how good we are or how much good we do. It is always a free, unmerited gift from a God who loves us infinitely. Despite that, we worry about being "better Christians" than other people, consciously or unconsciously striving to make God love us more. At other times, we wish we could have just become Christians on our deathbeds, doing whatever we want in the meantime. Both mindsets get in the way of everything God desires for us in this life and eternity: to transform us by his grace and fill our hearts with his love.

1. Where have you seen God's unexpected generosity? Where have you struggled to understand God's action in your life?

God Doesn't Sit Back

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers. Instead of waiting for workers to come to him, the master actively goes out into the marketplace.

He returns repeatedly—at noon, at three o'clock, and even at the very last hour of the day. This constant going out reveals the true heart of our heavenly Father, who never ceases to seek us.

God does not sit back and wait for us to find him; he pursues us tirelessly in our daily lives. His invitations are not based on our human schedules or what we think we deserve. He meets us exactly where we are, whether we have served him for a lifetime or just a moment.

When the workday ends, the master surprises everyone by paying the latecomers the exact same full wage. This radical act shows that God's grace is not a business contract based on merit or hours logged.

His mercy is a free and limitless gift, flowing from a generous heart that wants everyone to receive his best.

St. Gregory Homemade Craft Fair Saturday, October 3

The Craft Fair is rapidly approaching and here are some great ways to become involved!

1. If your garden is producing abundantly, don't let the overage go to waste. Consider canning or pickling several additional jars for the Parish function. This can be anything from jams & jellies, to pickles or salsa, and everything in between! What a great way to share God's blessings with others!
2. Consider handcrafting something for our "Parishioner Donations" booth. We are looking for newly handcrafted items that would sell for $20 or less and can be any sort of craft: wood, pottery, leather, greeting cards, fresh floral arrangements, etc. It will showcase the many talents in this parish!

   All monies received (100%) go directly to St. Gregory Parish, and any remaining items will be distributed by SG Caring Hearts & Hands to nursing home or homebound parishioners to show they are in our thoughts and prayers! Imagine their joy receiving a handmade item from a fellow parishioner.

All donations should be dropped off at the SG Parish Office by October 1. Thank you for sharing your talents with the Parish and please contact Amy Faucett or Liz Kenneke with any questions you may have.

Journey to the Heart of Jesus

The past three months have focused on Service: the 'action' of stewardship, using skills, talents, and time to help meet needs.

September – November introduces the third component of stewardship, Sharing. Sharing is giving of our resources for the benefit of the community. Sharing is an act of generosity. It may be to work toward equality or uphold personal dignity of others.

How can we share what we have? Throughout the next several weeks, you'll see and hear messages of Sharing. They will be about weekly collections, but they will also be so much more. Sharing will include impacting local charities, national organizations and even world-wide groups. It is sharing today and planning for the future.

 If you have not turned in a service commitment form, it's not too late. Additional forms are at the back of church and the office. Drop the form off at the parish office or place it in the collection basket. Thank you and God bless!*

Religious Education 2026-2027

This weekend is Catechetical Sunday. At the 8am Mass, all catechists involved in the Religious Education program will receive a blessing as they begin another year of sharing the faith with our students.

The catechists for 2026 – 2027 are: Amy Herring, Sharon Mueller, Sr. Veronica Schad, Miranda Arnold, Pam Post, Melissa Frost, Gary Mueller, Patty Wilhelm, Kelly Isselmann, Jean Blattner, Rita Steffen, and Cecelia DeBruin.

A special thank you to all the volunteers for their dedication and being a witness to our youth.

Witness Story: Service
Steve Noworatzky

I've been part of this parish, off and on, since my early childhood. I made my First Communion here when there was a railing. All my schooling was done here at the grade school and St. Gregory High School back in the 60's. But then, it was time for me to spread my wings and leave this town not knowing that I would eventually come back.

As I was reflecting on what I was going to share with you today, I found myself thinking of my experiences with serving for God's sake. He gave me the capacity and willingness to be a steward of my talents. Just like all of you who have certain God-given talents. One of those gifts we share is a "need to give". I believe God had a plan for me. Of course, there are different ways of giving. I want to speak about giving of my time.

As I mentioned earlier, I grew up here. So, one of my first recollections of service to God was serving Mass as an altar boy. It took me awhile to learn the Latin prayer responses at that time. It was a special feeling up there at the altar because the sanctuary is a holy place that few people can experience. I served all through high school.

I continued schooling in Milwaukee, moved to Illinois, served my country overseas, got married in Pennsylvania, and eventually moved back here with a family. My wife and I raised four kids and they all graduated from St. Gregory Grade School. We felt that getting a good Catholic education was important. During that time, I was involved with coaching basketball and baseball in the summer. My wife and I also shared serving as Eucharistic Ministers at the time. When my sons were old enough, I served with them as altar boys.

As a parishioner, I served on many committees and currently as Secretary Trustee. My service of stewardship for this parish has given me great satisfaction. Even though the scheduling can and does get challenging sometimes. There have been times when I couldn't meet a commitment, so I usually traded with someone who could do the same.

My service of being a reader has been the most profound experience. God has blessed me with a voice to proclaim His Word at Mass. On occasion, I will choose to remain at the altar after the readings. Those are the times when I feel completely in awe during the Consecration. Truly, feeling the presence of our Lord Jesus. This is what serving our Lord is all about. And I thank God for that experience.

I invite you to think about how you can serve. We are in need of Mass servers, Eucharistic Ministers, Readers, Greeters, and other committee positions. Even if you served a particular position in the past and "took a break", please reconsider joining to share your talent. Please contact the Parish Office for more information.

Witness Talk: Service
Sharon Mueller

I have been a member of Holy Trinity for 41 years; joining the parish in 1985. My husband, Gary and I have been married for 53 years, and we have 4 adult children, a son-in-law and 3 grandchildren. Gary is a very service orientated person and is active in many church and community areas as a volunteer fireman, coach, catechist and various ministries. We both feel it's important to give back to God our talents, time, and treasures. God has been good to us.

One ministry especially dear to my heart is being a second-grade catechist. I started teaching shortly after becoming a member, over 40 years ago. It has helped me grow in my own faith journey. My students have taught me so much!

It's important to remember we are all at different stages in our faith journey. As a catechist, we have limited time with our students and hope to nourish the seed of faith. We encourage families to make it grow. We all need to be role models for our youth. Many volunteers have seen previous relatives active in their parish and community. God is good.

Service is the call to put faith into action. We are all given 24 hours in a day. It's important to make God a priority – more than one hour on Sunday. A priest who gave a parish mission years ago had a saying I never forgot and practice daily, "no Bible, no breakfast, no Bible, no bed." It's a great way to start and end the day – if only a few minutes. Try it – you'll be amazed, how life has more meaning. God is good.

I have enjoyed volunteering in various areas. Volunteers are very dear to my heart – they are generous, helpful, and kind. We are truly blessed to have so many. They are wonderful stewards of their time. Service is an extension of Sunday worship into everyday life. We truly are God's hand and feet. God can do great things through you. God is good.

Jesus was the perfect model of what a life of service looks like. He healed. He cooked, and he even washed feet! The more we give of ourselves, the more Christ-like we become. Every day we need to ask, "How can I serve you today?" or "Who can I bless today?"

Good stewards witness in both word and action. Stewardship means caring and sharing God's gifts. We need to care for our families, our homes, our community, our environment, and even our own health. May each of us find ways to be a parish and community that reflects the love of Christ. I Peter 4:10 is a great verse, "Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms." God is good.

October 3rd Bake Sale
