Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: The Pharisees' question for Jesus in today's gospel reading is a clear trap. If he responds against the tax, he stands in opposition to the mighty Roman empire. If he responds in favor, he is a traitor to his own people. Jesus responds by calling out the test and pointing the question back to his accusers – "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" Giving his often-quoted response, Jesus answers the question with another implicit question: What is Caesar's and what is God's? In truth, all things belong to God and the obligation to God is significantly greater, as surely the Pharisees recognize. Jesus' intent here is not to give a framework for a Christian relationship between religion and the state (not that this is not an important question), but to frame this issue as a locus for individual discernment. Am I giving to God what is owed to God? Or have I made the world's various Caesars my priority?

To Experience: Jesus' response in today's gospel reading invites us to consider our own relationships to political processes and the people around us. In many ways, politics in the Western world are a spectator sport for the masses and a plaything for the ultra-wealthy, rather than a vehicle for promotion of the common good as the church calls for. Voting and political participation are good things and civic obligations, but they can also become ends in themselves if we do not keep our hearts in check. Am I placing my trust in Christ first, or am I placing all of my eggs in a political party's basket, regardless of what their platform supports or opposes? Is political participation an opportunity to love my neighbor as Christ, or is it more about seeing my "team" win and the other lose?

1. What do you think about Jesus' response to the Pharisees? What does it look like for you to give God what is God's?

Our Entire Being Belongs To God

This Sunday Gospel centers on the famous encounter regarding paying taxes to Caesar.

The Pharisees and Herodians attempt to trap Jesus in speech by asking whether it is lawful to pay the census tax. If Jesus answers no, He faces execution by the Roman authorities; if He answers yes, He risks alienating His Jewish followers. Recognizing their malice, Jesus asks them to show Him the Roman coin used to pay the tax.

He points to the image on the coin and asks whose likeness and inscription it bears. When they reply "Caesar's," Jesus delivers His profound and timeless teaching: "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

This brilliant response goes far beyond political duties, challenging us to look at what is stamped on our own souls. Just as the coin bears Caesar's image and belongs to him, we bear God's image and belong entirely to Him. This Gospel reminds us that while we must be responsible citizens, our ultimate allegiance and entire being belong to our Creator.

Second Collection:
This Weekend – October 17 & 18

World Mission Sunday helps Pope Leo care for the 1,130 missionary dioceses and territories under his supervision through the Dicastery for Evangelization.

We are called to be part of this missionary work, and we have a singular means to do so: World Mission Sunday.

The second collection we take up today helps extend the Church's evangelization work to missionary lands where the Gospel is being proclaimed for the first time, as well as to places where the Church barely exists, or is too young, too persecuted, or too poor to sustain herself. Thank you for responding to Pope Leo's call to help him help missionaries everywhere!

Clothing Drive to Benefit Local Schools

ABLAZE Youth Group will be holding a limited clothing and hygiene drive to benefit school-aged children. Collection boxes will be located at the back of church. The items collected at each parish will go directly to the public school district in their area, either Kiel or Valders. The target range is Kindergarten through Eighth grade. ONLY NEW ITEMS PLEASE!

Please note this is a limited collection of the following:

- Underwear
- Socks
- T-shirts
- Sweatshirts
- Sweatpants
- Hygiene products (deodorant, shampoo, soap/body wash, toothpaste/toothbrush)

Thank you!

October: Pregnancy & Infant Loss Awareness Month

October is Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month. If you know parents who have lost a baby through miscarriage, stillbirth, ectopic pregnancy or infant death, please remember them and their child(ren) in your prayers this month.

The blue candle burning at the front of each church is in honor of all parents affected and the memory of their children.

"Let us pray that all parents who mourn the loss of a son or daughter find support in their community and may receive peace of heart from the Spirit of Consolation."

Congratulations

Matt Schneider was officially instituted into the ministry as acolyte in September by Bishop Ricken as part of the diaconate formation.

Continue to pray for the men in the diaconate formation, especially Matt during his final year of formation.

Thank You! Thank You! Thank You!

Two weeks ago was the 3rd Annual SG Handmade Craft Fair. Thank you to Amy Faucett and Liz Kenneke who brought their vision to the councils and gave it their all to see it through! Thank you for the months of footwork recruiting so many amazing vendors. The day's success would not be possible without the support and assistance from so many other volunteers! To everyone who had a part in the day itself, in preparation, and/or in the clean-up, thank you!

St. Gregory Parish Handmade Craft Fair

St. Gregory Parish Handmade Craft Fair has come to a close with $4,156 added to the parish's operational needs. Additional funds were raised by St. Gregory's Caring Hearts & Hands bake sale and through Scrip sales, while the Food Pantry received many additions. While this is not a large amount, it brings us greater blessings to watch our Parish Center become a bustling hive of camaraderie.

There are many people to thank for this success. From the many volunteers who put in countless hours for 3 days, to parishioners who donated baked goods, items to sell, or helped bring in great talent, to those who supported small businesses and made purchases on Saturday, a sincere thank you! The unique talents each and every one of you were willing to share was heartwarming. As you can see, we have a wonderful community that we are blessed to call "home". God bless you all!

Amy Faucett & Liz Kenneke

Thank you to everyone who supported our Bake Sale. Whether you donated or purchased, it is greatly appreciated. Caring Hearts and Hands

Journey to the Heart of Jesus

To Whom Much is Given
Much is Required…Luke 12:48

Do you see yourself as having been given much? Through his son, Jesus, God calls us to be faithful servants and good stewards of his many gifts. So first of all, let's stop and think of the gifts we have been given. In fact, it's a good thing to close each day with a prayer of gratitude recognizing the many gifts that you were given in that day alone, a loving family, faithful friends, a working car, a warm dinner, etcetera. Your list may be different from mine but they are all gifts! And since every good gift is from God it also belongs to God.

Wait! I need these gifts now! Does God want me to give away the very things he has given me? Well, good question. As a disciple of Christ, we are called to return a portion of what we have been given back to him in gratitude. Think of it as an act of worship, an act of trust. We can give without worry when we have faith like St Paul who said, "And my God will fully satisfy every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus." (Philippians 4:19) God will never be outdone in generosity. As our acts of generosity increase, our focus changes from that of passive recipients to active members of the body of Christ.

Keep in mind the widow's mite (Mark 12:41-44). The value of her gift was not the amount but the sacrifice and heart behind it. To use an athletic expression, she wanted to be part of the team. Her contribution, however small, was profoundly meaningful to God and she was not only on the team but off the bench and in the game!

Stewardship is for you. Yes, you! It is in imitation of Christ who offers his very life as an atonement for our sins that we respond with offering our lives back to him. While we live our lives for Christ now what else can we give him as poor as we are? Wisely and selflessly manage what you have been given. Take personal responsibility and hold yourself accountable to bless others as you have been blessed but most importantly give Christ what he truly wants, your heart.

Stewardship's Third Component: Sharing

During the weekends of October 17 & 18 and 24 & 25, you are invited to prayerfully discern what sharing means for you.

A kneeler will be placed at the front of church. Either during the Rosary before Mass or after Mass, all parishioners are encouraged to come before God to offer a Prayer of Thanksgiving for their blessings received. Your prayer may also include asking for God's guidance and clarity when discerning how to share the blessings you've been given. This may mean separating your basic needs from your wants, practicing deliberate charity, and supporting your church and the poor.

You are encouraged to add incense to the thurible (incense burner). (The smoke from the burning incense rises just as we send our prayers up to our Heavenly Father.) Before returning to your pew, take a prayer card along with you.

Religious Education 2026-2027

Thank you to those who joined Wednesday's Rosary Procession with the RE students and families. It was a beautiful time of prayer while walking in the crisp fall air surrounded by the changing colors and the setting sun in the west.
